OPERA DRUG AND RACKET STORE

Opera House Building, Rich Hill
D. B. HICKEY, Prop.

One family moves out and another moves in.

Rev. W. T. Pyles was quite sick Monday night and could not attend the meeting.

THE TRIBUNE's telephone is No. 32. Send us the local news by telephone.

Miss Leona Oliver returned to her home in Jefferson City Monday night, after a pleasant visit with Rich Hill friends. What will Ben do now?

The Salvation Army is doing good work at the Walnut Street M. E. Church. Fourteen were at the altar both Sunday and Monday nights, and many were converted. A general earnestness seems to pervade the crowded house each night.

Mr. Geo. O. Circle, living just southeast of the city, was reported last week quite sick, is now reported to be slowly improving. There is nothing harder on him than to have to stay in doors and keep quiet long enough to be right sick. His friends hope to see him out soon.

A peculiar disease seems to be playing havoc with the horses in this vicinity judging by last Monday's cases. H. P. James had a delivery horse to die right suddenly Sunday night, a Mrs. Burcher of Mine 14, had a horse taken suddenly sick on the street and was hauled off to die, and A. C. Cate had one to drop suddenly on the street. The trouble is supposed to affect the kidneys.

List Your Property Now.

If you desire to dispose of your farm, let me sell it for you. If you want to exchange it for good land in western Kansas, and get three to six acres for one, I will make an effort to do so. I will be at Hotel Lee in Adrian, Mo., Jan. 15; at the Merchants Hotel in Rich Hill, Jan. 16; W. O. Atkeson's Law Office in Butler, Jan. 17. Come in on the above dates and list your property, or write me, giving full description, price and terms. I think I can sell or exchange your farm for you if the price is right. Cheap transportation to Western Kansas Jan. 20. E. B. ATKINSON, Grainfield, Kansas.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Read THE TRIBUNE.

Ben Caldwell has returned to school at Jacksonville, Illinois.

The Farmers' Home Restaurant is headquarters for candy, nuts and fruit.

Rev. Wesley Lattin is slowly getting better of his recent severe attack.

Leo Loeb, after his holiday visit to home folks, returned to Columbia college Sunday last.

Go to the Farmers' Home Restaurant when in the city, and you will find it O. K. for lunch, or meals.

Rev. C. A. Hedrick preached at the Christian Church Sunday morning and evening very interesting sermons.

Mrs. Mary Driscoll and Dr. D. Haddock were adjudged insane last Friday by Judge Silvers, of the probate court.

The Bazaar is selling holiday toys at greatly reduced rates. Now is the time to get bargains for the little folks.

I have houses for sale for from $100 up to $1000, on easy payments and long time. Come and see me. —Geo. P. HUCKERY.

Miss Maggie Hughes, after the holiday visit to her family and friends, returned to her school duties at Columbia, last Monday.

Mrs. S. L. Ames, at the Bazaar, is reducing stock to invoice. If you want holiday goods, millinery or chinaware at less than cost, call at once.

44 acres in Camden county, 3 1/2 miles from county seat, to trade for team, wagon and harness. If you want this call at once. —PROWELL & COOK.

At the Bazaar Mrs. Ames is selling millinery at less than cost. Bargains plenty for a few days. Come and get more than your money's worth.

Ed Crabbe will soon move to town and occupy the G. S. Weathers property. We understand that Mr. Weathers and his son, Wilson, will remove to their farm.

Don't fail to patronize the merchants who advertise in THE TRIBUNE. They have the goods you want and will sell it to you at fair prices and save you money.

The Cowles-McKibben Mercantile Co. edits one whole page of our paper this week. They speak right out about merchandise and tell you plainly what they have to sell, why they want to sell it, and the prices they will sell it to you for and save you money. Read the big ad.

Mr. John Silvers entered upon his duties as probate judge January 1st, and is said by those who have seen him, to preside with as much dignity as an old hand at the business. He is from Rich Hill and like all the officials Rich Hill has given the county, he will do his duty faithfully as the law directs. John Silvers is a good man for the place.

Some time after one o'clock Monday night, the home of Mrs. Scollar, near the southern limits of the city, took fire and was entirely consumed with all its contents, except some bed clothing and a few chairs. The property was lately bought by Mrs. Scollar and her son Joe, who had but recently finished paying for it. The loss comes heavily on them, but fortunately they had been wise enough to carry insurance, which will help them out that much.

And now it is Recorder Lisle, and F. Coleman Smith is his deputy. The recorder's office will be run all right, notwithstanding its intense Democracy. We have known Lisle a long time and it there is a man in Bates county that deserves well of his party, he is one of them. We hope while he is in office he will be able to recoup his fortune and go into the banking business when his term is ended, if he wants to.

Mr. John Frank Dead.

John Frank was born in Wellington, Germany, Sept. 19, 1827, and was married in August, 1853, and with his wife he came to America in 1854, and to Bates county, Mo., in 1871, and to Rich Hill in 1892. He was the father of Mrs. August and Julius Elger of this city, Mrs. C. B. Wilson of Meigs, and Charles Frank of Sprague. Mr. Frank has been sick for a long time and died last Sunday night, Jan. 4, of asthma and resultant dropsical trouble. The funeral took place from the German Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon conducted by Rev. John Schaff, the pastor, of which church Mr. Frank was a revered and faithful member all his life. His fatherly consideration of his family, his wise counsels in his church and his usefulness as a citizen will long be missed and kindly remembered by those who knew him best.

Gov. Dockery's Wife Dead.

Mrs. Mary E. Dockery, wife of Governor Dockery, died at the executive mansion in Jefferson City, early New Year's morning, from heart trouble. She was a native of Missouri and one of the best of the states production. She was born March 15, 1848, and married Dr. Alexander M. Dockery April 15, 1869. She was the mother of eight children, all of whom died in infancy or early youth.

She always took a deep interest in the success of her husband and was his constant companion and assistant in his official duties, and doubtless her counsels materially aided in promoting and preserving his deserved popularity with his party.

The sympathy of the people of the state without regard to party, go out to the Governor in his deep affliction. A model wife and Christian, she has gone to the reward that crowns the life of all such and sheds a halo of glory all around the American home.

Jessie Benton Fremont.

Jessie Benton Fremont, another one of the noble great women of the United States, died at her home in Los Angeles, California, Sunday, Dec. 28, 1902. She was the daughter of Thomas H. Benton, the greatest man Missouri ever had and one of the greatest that ever trod the halls of legislation in this country.

She was the wife of another one of the country's greatest men, John Charles Fremont, the first candidate for the presidency nominated by the Republican party. The man who marked out the line of success for the government in our great rebellion which President Lincoln afterward followed. Mrs. Fremont inherited the qualities of her father in a remarkable degree and was a marked example of the faithful wives and loyal mothers of America. Her sons, like the sons of Julia Dent Grant, are serving their country and their generation just as would be expected of the children of such mothers.

Walnut Street M. E. Church.

Revival services will be conducted at this church by a brigade of the Salvation Army every evening at 7:30 and every afternoon at 3 during the week. On Sunday they will hold services at 11 a. m., at 3 in the afternoon and at 7 in the evening. Everybody cordially invited. W. T. PYLES, Pastor.

Harry will at once resume his duties with the firm of Burnham, Munger & Co., one of the largest establishments in the city. Harry's friends hereabouts are always glad to hear of his success.

Adolf Lorenz, "the great Austrian surgeon with soft, strong hand," is the subject of a very welcome paper by John Swain in the January McClure's. It is a story that will be read by many thankful parents, rich and poor, the country over—the story of the great heated benefactor of little children, who began life as a poor farmer lad. There is an excellent explanation of Dr. Lorenz's famous operation, and of just how he performs it, with the aid only of his own mighty strength, when other surgeons have to rely on specially devised apparatus.

Great Story of Standard Oil

"Miss Tarbell's work is of unusual importance as a 'document' of the day. Her story has live men in it; they suffer and work and win and lose their battles with the verisimilitude that removes the tale from the dry statement and clothes it with the color of human interest and the vivid rainbow garment of human sympathy. *** The results of her work are likely to be far reaching; she is writing authentic history."—Boston Globe.

"The most important auto-biography made by any magazine."—New York Journal.
